BIBLE LESSON HELPS.

VERY IMPORTANT; PLEASE OBSERVE.

To insure your literature being sent in time, please order three or four weeks before the end of the quarter.

State the number of copies and title of literature and length of time to be sent, bearing in mind that quarters commence with January, April, July, and October, and expire with March, June, September, and December.

In renewing literature, please do not write "Duplicate last order," but specify the items as now wanted.

It prevents confusion and duplicating orders by having all orders, remittances, and correspondence sent in by one person.

Subscriptions will not be renewed without an order.

In remitting, state plainly whether money sent is in payment of an account already made or in payment of the accompanying order.

If your school has an account, do not fail to give the person's full name, as Sunday-school accounts are not kept in the name of the Sunday school, but in the name of some officer of the school or the individual making order.

Gospel Quarterly, for Advanced Classes. Contains from 64 to 72 pages; size of page, 6x9. It is printed on good white paper. It has few, if any, equals as a commentary on the lesson text. It is rapidly growing in favor with all who use it. Five or more to one address, per quarter, each, 6 cents; single copy, per year, 50 cents.

Gospel Quarterly, for Intermediate Classes. Contains from 32 to 36 pages; size of page, 5x8. Type clear. The Introductory and Explanatory Notes are very thoughtful and edifying. The editor handles the word of God in a skillful manner. Five or more to one address, per quarter, each, 3 cents; single copy, per year, 25 cents.

Gospel Quarterly, for Primary Classes. Contains from 32 to 36 pages. The Lesson Story is a very instructive and interesting feature. The lesson is treated in an easy, simple manner. It is suited to the young. Five or more to one address, per quarter, each, 2 cents.

The Quarterlies each contain three months' lessons, and are sold only for the entire quarter.

Little Jewels (mailed monthly). A child's paper, containing four pages. It is printed on fine paper, and is beautifully illustrated. It contains much good reading for the children. The lesson text is printed in the paper, and the answer is given to each question, making it simple. Five or more to one address, per quarter, each, 6 cents; single subscription, per year, 50 cents.

Lesson Leaves, made up from the Intermediate Quarterly. These are wire-stitched, without a cover. Five or more to one address, per quarter, each, 3 cents.

Bible Lesson Picture Cards consist of quarterly sets of thirteen cards each (one for each lesson), with questions and answers on the lesson on one side, and a suitable picture in several colors, illustrating the lesson, on the other side. Size of cards, $3\frac{3}{4} \times 4$ inches. Price, per quarter, $2\frac{1}{2}$ cents.

Bible Lesson Picture Charts. These pictures are arranged in chart form, and consist of twelve large pictures (one for each lesson, except Review), printed in colors on heavy paper (size, 27×37 inches) of sufficient size to illustrate the lesson to the entire school. Per quarter, 75 cents.

Write for samples of the entire series.

J. C. McQUIDDY, Office Editor.

The Gospel Advocate is the oldest living periodical published in the interest of the church of Christ. It is now in its forty-eighth volume, and it has a larger list of regular, paid-up subscribers than it has ever had before. Its circulation is increasing rapidly, and it is daily growing in favor with the people. It contains sixteen large pages, and it is issued every week. It is printed in large, clear type, on good paper, and is neatly pasted and trimmed. It has by far the largest circulation of any periodical published south of the Mason and Dixon's Line in the interest of the church of Christ. It employs four regular editorial writers, besides a large number of able and regular contributors. It has all of the regular departments of the best religious periodicals.

In editorial policy it stands for individual consecration, against ecclesiastic organizations, as the scriptural and best method of doing missionary work. It recognizes no organization but the church of Christ as a scriptural medium of converting the world and developing the Christian character.

It opposes all human creeds and ecclesiastic councils, and pleads for the right of each individual to study the Scriptures for himself, and formulate his own faith, without dictation or hindrance from churchly dignitaries. It opposes all clerical assumption of official authority in the church, and stands for the scriptural doctrine that each Christian has an office to fill, a work to perform—that all are kings and priests unto God.

It stoutly advocates the doctrine of missions, and argues unceasingly that every Christian is a divinely commissioned missionary and every church a scripturally organized missionary society. The mission of every Christian and the design of every church is to preach the gospel to all the world.

It believes in, and stoutly advocates, congregational singing, as opposed to select choirs and instrumental performances, as the best and most soul-stirring church music. Let all the people sing. Provide a book for everybody in the house, and let us all make a joyful noise unto the Lord.

Subscription price, one year, $1.50; six months, 75 cents (payable in advance). Sample copies mailed free to any address.

Communications and remittances should be addressed to
